

LIVINGSTON COUNTY, MICHIGAN
FINANCE DEPARTMENT

304 E. Grand River Ave., Suite 203 Howell, MI 48843
www.livgov.com

Dear Vendor:

We are happy to welcome you as a new vendor to Livingston County.

Federal income tax law requires us to have your Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN) or Social Security Number (SSN) on file depending on your filing status. If you are an individual / sole proprietor, your social security number is your TIN. Otherwise your Federal Employer Identification Number is your TIN. Only one number is required. Under Federal Regulation, you are required to complete and provide us with this information via the enclosed W-9 form. In the event you fail to provide this information, all payments we make to you may be subject to a 28% backup withholding.

We will file Form 1099-MISC for each vendor that performs a service for Livingston County. If you are a corporation, with the exception of attorneys and medical services, tax-exempt organization, government agency, or other exempt payee, you will not receive a Form 1099-MISC.

The questionnaire is a new process that we have instituted and require now for all our new and existing vendors. This provides us with a more in depth view of the nature of the businesses or individuals that are working directly with Livingston County and promotes better working relationships.

The Certificate of Liability Insurance (COI) is another requirement for new and existing Vendors that must be maintained annually. Please contact your insurance representative and have them forward your current COI with endorsements naming Livingston County as the certificate holder. Included on the COI will be any current detail coverage for general liability, automotive, worker's compensation, and other additional coverage as required by contract.

In addition, Livingston County, as a governmental agency, is exempt from Federal Excise Tax, as allowed by law in Section 4253(i) of the Internal Service Code. Livingston County is also exempt from Michigan State Sales Tax, as allowed by Rule 205.79 of the 1944 Administrative Rules for the State of Michigan, as amended.

Once completed, please return the attached or enclosed package to:
